DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

Again similar to 832 Tyson Street, this house shares a chimney and very narrow sally port with 842. The windows are of original size with wood sills, and vertical board shutters. The door is hidden by wood blinds and capped by a single light transom. Its three brick stairs are covered with concrete and have a brick planter to their right. The coal door has an ornate scrollwork pattern in cast iron.
